Opening Remarks

Operational and Threat Update

The Commissioner of the RCMPs.39

s.39

s.39

her update today will focus primarily on Ottawa and Gatineau as things are relatively stable at other sites across the country.

On the situation in Ottawa, the Commissioner of the RCMP reported that this is one of the largest enforcement operations in Canada outside of major events like the Olympics or G7. There are over 725 uniformed officers deployed, including 365 frontline officers and 360 action planning officers such as tactical teams. Additional law enforcement personnel is also on the way from across the country. The secure perimeter remains with more than 100 checkpoints and a number of exits along Highway 417 have been closed. The Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) and Ontario transportation ministry continue to monitor the roads coming in to Ottawa to prevent further entry from those wanting to join the protests, with those trying to come in being re-routed to Embrun and Arnprior, and those sites being monitored. Three key organizers of the protest have been arrested by the OPS and remain in custody. Thus far most arrests have been cooperative arrests although some individuals are resisting or impeding arrest such as by creating snowbanks. The operational plan for clearing the seven sites in Ottawa was briefly outlined, with the RCMP Commissioner noting that the first site (Nicholas/Waller) has been cleared with 10 arrests and 8 trucks towed. The second site (Rideau/Sussex) is ongoing. In total approximately 70 individuals have been arrested and 21 vehicles have been towed. The OPS, RCMP and OPP held a press conference this afternoon to update the country on the status of operations.

As it relates to Gatineau, the Commissioner of the RCMP reported that last night (February 17) the city secured an injunction against 25-30 protesters who last month set up a site to support the Ottawa protest by providing food and fuel. The group was given until 16:00 hrs to leave and originally relocated to a church parking lot. Upon being directed to leave that area, given its proximity to a school, they appear to have left and do not appear to be relocating elsewhere.

As it relates to additional activity over the weekend, there are reports of additional convoys en-route to join the Ottawa protest including the Alberta Freedom Convoy, 3 chartered buses from Toronto and two from St Jerome and Gatineau. Police are ready to intercept and divert these convoys where possible.

The RCMP Commissioner provided a brief update on the rest of Canada. In Windsor, an extension to the injunction was granted and there are reports of a rally planned at 2pm on February 19 on the Windsor waterfront. In Cornwall, at Ports of Entry (POE) remain open and there are unconfirmed reports of a planned protest on Sunday. In Saskatchewan, there are two encampments, North Portal and North Gate, both of which are on private land. Some indications of more demonstrators arriving in the coming days however there is no infrastructure or roadways compromised and RCMP is well-resourced. Coutts has resumed normal operations and monitoring continues at that site. In Manitoba, Emerson has also returned to normal with no indication of future protests. All other POEs in Manitoba are operating normally. There are two planned convoys over the weekend, including one en-route to the provincial legislature. In British Columbia there are no reports of convoys however there is a potential convoy scheduled Saturday from Campbell River to Victoria. Finally in Nova Scotia there are indications of a coordinated protest planned on February 19 of 250 people.

As it relates to financial measures, the RCMP Commissioner s.38

The Minister of Public Safety s.39
s.39
The Minister reported that there may be some slow roll activity throughout the weekend at a number of POEs but they are watching two in particular: The first is the Windsor tunnel where there may be an effort to fully block the bridge. Notably, this POE sees mostly private traffic, compared to the Ambassador bridge where the majority of traffic is commercial. The second POE is the Peace Bridge where there are expectations of a potential blockade forming on both the Canada and United States sides of the border. CBSA and in touch with Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and are watching this event carefully. Solicitor-Client Priv.

The President of CBSA confirmed that they are well prepared with CBP to manage additional activity at POEs throughout the weekend and that they have seen no further attempts of individuals attempting to cross into Canada to participate in the protests.

Key Messages for Ministers	PCO	17 February, 2022
		Invoking the Emergencies Act to keep Canadians safe
		On Monday, February 14 th , the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Ministers Lametti, Blair, and Mendicino announced that our government is invoking the Emergencies Act to supplement Provincial and Territorial authorities to address the blockades and occupation to keep Canadians safe, protect people’s jobs, and restore confidence in our institutions.
		For more information, see the key messages below.
		Key messages: - For three weeks now, blockades have been illegally disrupting the life of Canadians, harming our economy, and endangering public safety. - It became clear that there are serious challenges to local law enforcements’ ability to effectively enforce the law. - We invoked the Emergencies Act to supplement Provincial and Territorial authorities to address the blockades and occupation to keep Canadians safe, protect people’s jobs, and restore confidence in our institutions. - The Act will strengthen and support the work by the police. We are not using the emergencies Act in order to deploy the military. We will not be suspending fundamental rights as articulated in the charter of rights and freedoms, nor are we limiting the right to peacefully protest or assemble.

For Official Use Only and not for Public Disclosure- The information provided by the RCMP and other authorities may include sensitive operational details. In order to protect the integrity of police operations, this information should not be shared, in whole or in part, without the prior consent of the RCMP and other originating authorities.

	• The police have now been given more tools to restore order in places where public assemblies can constitute illegal and dangerous activities, such as blockades and occupations as seen in Ottawa, Ambassador Bridge and elsewhere. These tools include strengthening their ability to impose fines or imprisonment. The government will designate secure-and-protect places and infrastructure that are critical to our economy and people's jobs, including border crossings and airports. • We have seen recent successes of our law enforcement agencies with the situations now resolved in Windsor, at the Ambassador Bridge, at Coutts Alberta Port of Entry, and also at the Emerson, Manitoba border crossing, however Ottawa remains illegally occupied and other cities across Canada are seeing similar protests. • For those of you thinking of joining these illegal protests, we strongly suggest that you reconsider. We are calling on everyone to not jeopardize public peace or endanger yourselves or others by participating in purposefully illegal activities. There will be consequences for all criminal behavior related to the ongoing situations in Ottawa and across the country.
